

REGIONAL SCHOOL UNIT No. 67

STUDENT COMPUTER AND INTERNET USE RULES

These rules implement R.S.U. No. 67 Board policy IJNDB – Student Computer and Internet Use. The rules are intended to provide general guidelines and examples of prohibited uses but do not attempt to state all required or prohibited activities by users. Failure to comply with Board policy IJNDB and these rules may result in loss of computer and Internet access privileges, disciplinary action and/or legal action.

A. Computer Use is a Privilege, Not a Right

Student use of R.S.U. No. 67's computers, networks and Internet services is a privilege, not a right. Unacceptable use/activity may result in suspension or cancellation of privileges as well as additional disciplinary and/or legal action.

The building principal shall have final authority to decide whether a student's privileges will be denied or revoked.

B. Acceptable Use

Student access to the R.S.U. No. 67's computers, networks and Internet services are provided for educational purposes and research consistent with the district's educational mission, curriculum and instructional goals.

The same rules and expectations govern student use of computers as apply to other student conduct and communications.

Students are further expected to comply with these rules and all specific instructions from the teacher or other supervising staff member/volunteer when accessing R.S.U. No. 67's computers, networks and Internet services.

C. Prohibited Use

The user is responsible for his/her actions and activities involving R.S.U. No. 67 computers, networks and Internet services and for his/her computer files, passwords and accounts. Examples of unacceptable uses that are expressly prohibited include but are not limited to the following:
